

Dialogue:

Move these words to the dialogue below to show an example of where they are.

Verb
Capital Letter      Open speech      Exclamation Mark
Full stop      Question Mark
Close speech      Adverb      Apostrophe

"You, an African princess? Don't be silly!" said one boy.
"Where's you palace?" shouted another nastily.

Check the next page!!!

Dialogue:

"You, an African princess? Don't be silly!" said one boy.
"Where's your palace?" shouted another nastily.

Capital Letter      Question Mark      Apostrophe      Exclamation Mark

Open speech      Close speech      Verb      Adverb      Full stop

What rules do you need to write a good dialogue?

eg: Use speech marks only around the bit that's said.

i dont need a palace replied the girl

thats because you arent a princess are you said the boy horribly

leave her alone you nasty boy or i will tell a teacher said lyras friend

no please dont tell the teacher squealed the scared boy

he ran off as quick as he could

Add the following to the text if you can! Then write it in your book.

4 opening speech marks "

4 closing speech marks "

7 Capital letters

4 apostrophes '

1 question mark ?

4 exclamation marks !

2 commas ,

"I don't need a palace" replied the girl.

"That's because you aren't a princess, are you?" said the boy horribly.

"Leave her alone you nasty boy, or i will tell a teacher!" said Lyras friend.

"No! Please don't tell the teacher!" squealed the scared boy.

He ran off as quick as he could!

Add the following to the text if you can! Then write it in your book.

4 opening speech marks "

4 closing speech marks "

7 Capital letters

4 apostrophes '

1 question mark ?

4 exclamation marks !

2 commas ,