

49 Rapid Grammar Activities

Quick activities designed to last up to 10 minutes. Based on the grammar, punctuation and vocabulary requirements in the National Curriculum from 2014. Answers included.

Question Types

G Grammar Terms and Word Classes

P Punctuation

V/T Verbs and Tenses

P/C Phrases and Clauses

V/SE Vocabulary, Formal and Standard English

ST Sentence Types

Tip: Press Ctrl+L to view pdf full screen.
Press Esc to return.

1 Tick to show if the sentence is a statement or command

	Statement	Command
Open the door
The window is open
Get the brush and clean the floor

2 Tick to show if the sentence is a question or command

	Question	Command
How are you feeling
What is your shoe size
Try harder

3 Tick to show if the sentence is a question, command or statement

	Question	Command	Statement
Go to the playground
It is time for lunch
Will you feed the fish, please

1 Tick to show if the sentence is a statement or command

	Statement	Command
Open the door		✓
The window is open	✓
Get the brush and clean the floor		✓

2 Tick to show if the sentence is a question or command

	Question	Command
How are you feeling	✓
What is your shoe size	✓
Try harder		✓

3 Tick to show if the sentence is a question, command or statement

	Question	Command	Statement
Go to the playground		✓
It is time for lunch			✓
Will you feed the fish, please	✓

- 1 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
I didn't want there help, I could do it by myself.

- 2 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
The dog was barking, and it's teeth were sharp.

- 3 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
We was going to school when we saw the police chase.

- 4 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
Were going to the party dressed as monsters.

- 5 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
The best bits about the party was the food and drink.

- 6 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
Can I have one of you're biscuits?

- 1 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
I didn't want there (their) help, I could do it by myself.
- 2 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
The dog was barking, and it's (its) teeth were sharp.
- 3 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
We was (were) going to school when we saw the police chase.
- 4 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
Were (We're) going to the party dressed as monsters.
- 5 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
The best bits about the party was (were) the food and drink.
- 6 Underline the incorrect word in this sentence:
Can I have one of you're (your) biscuits?

1 Match each prefix to the correct word so that it makes a new word.

dis	spell
mis	septic
super	appear
anti	hero

2 Match each prefix to the correct word so that it makes a new word.

in	legal
un	patient
im	kind
il	correct

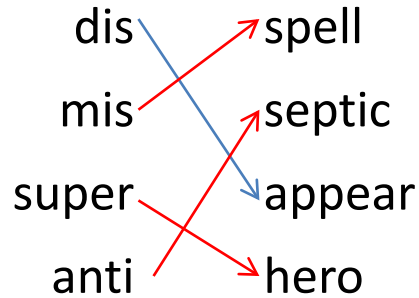

3 Match each prefix to the correct word so that it makes a new word.

re	heading
sub	do
inter	biography
auto	national

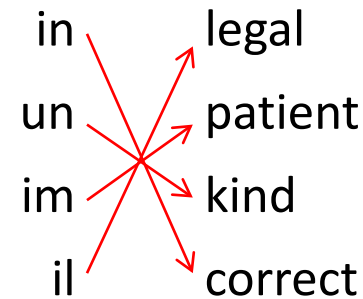

4 Match each prefix to the correct word so that it makes a new word.

in	agree
dis	regular
ir	active
anti	clockwise

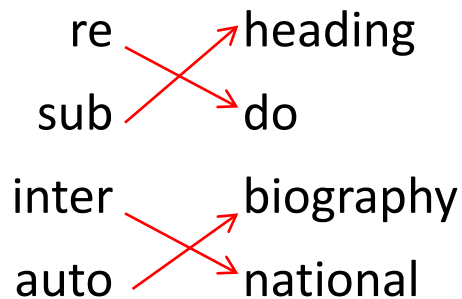

1 Match each prefix to the correct word so that it makes a new word.

2 Match each prefix to the correct word so that it makes a new word.

3 Match each prefix to the correct word so that it makes a new word.

4 Match each prefix to the correct word so that it makes a new word.

