

Text:
Is it clear what the article is trying to persuade you to do?
Is there something that grabs the reader's attention (a picture/ headline...? If so what is it?
Can you find any of the following: Questions Facts Statistics Quotes Expert Opinion Write which ones you find...
Does the writing talk about both sides of the argument, or just one side?
Can you find powerful words/phrases that provoke strong feeling? Write them...
Is there a strong ending that suggests action or the need to do something?						