

How do artists show the themes of Jesus' death and resurrection from the gospels?

"Christ on the cross between the two thieves."

What is happening in this painting?

Can you name any of the people?

How does the picture make you feel? Why?

What colours has the artist used? How does this affect the mood?

"The Resurrection "

How do your answers change with this painting?

What is happening in this painting?

Can you name any of the people?

How does the picture make you feel? Why?

What colours has the artist used? How does this affect the mood?

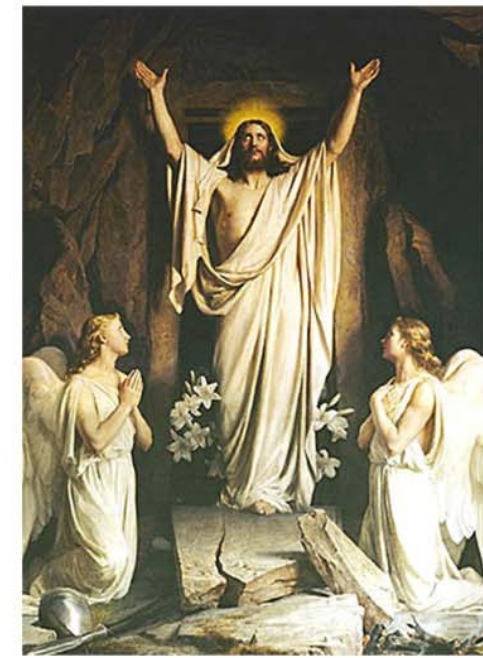

Look at the following 4 pictures with a partners and consider the following questions. Make notes on your paper.

What is happening in this picture and which part of the resurrection is it?

Can you label any of the people?

What colours have been used?

How is the picture supposed to make you feel and think?

Extension/Plenary:

What else can you learn from each picture?

From the pictures, what questions would you like to ask about the pictures?

