

In your best full writing...how could these dilemmas be solved?

Jerome was going to the shop buy some bread for his mother. When he got to the shop he saw his best friend there. His best friend did not see him, but he was shicked to see that his freind was stealing sweets...what should he do?

---

---

---

---

Jessica's family were very poor. They had a big family of about 10 children! It was difficult to find enough money to feed them all. When Jessica was coming home from school one day, she saw a very rich person drop £100 on the floor. What should she do?

---

---

---

---